IFLA World Library and Information Congress & 83th IFLA General Conference and Assembly

August 20-24, 2017, Wrocław, Poland

Venue: The Centennial Hall (Address: Wystawowa 1, Wrocław)

How to get there: For the Congress venue, you will take Tram No. 4. The tram stop "Fadroma" is located about a 3 minute walk from hotel (see it on the map – <http://bit.ly/2wl1ppl>). The name of stop where you will get out is "Zoo", which is next to an entrance of The Centennial Hall. The trip will take about 30 minutes. A single-ride ticket costs 3.00 PLN. There are ticket vending machines near tram-stops.

You will need to buy ticket only on the first trip to go to the Congress. During the IFLA WLIC 2017 Congress, all participants will be able to use Wrocław's public transportation (trams, buses, etc. – but not taxis) free of charge, to go anywhere in the city. After registration, your name badge will serve as a city ticket for the duration of the Congress.

This agenda includes selected sessions of the WLIC 2017 programme that might be relevant for public libraries. Please note that some recommended sessions are happening in parallel, you need to choose the one to attend, based on your interests. You can go to another session, if you find that your first choice is not interesting or useful.

The full Congress programme is available online at: <https://2017.ifla.org/conference-programme> Explore the programme to see speakers names and titles of presentations. You will also find links to access full text papers, uploaded to IFLA's electronic library.

The IFLA WLIC 2017 Congress mobile app is available for download from Google play or App Store. With it you will have the congress information 'at your fingertips'.

IMPORTANT: We kindly ask you attend the following sessions that are organized specially for the YALI participants:
