

Workshop on the L&E work programme and the WIPO broadcasting treaty

Wednesday, 27 April 2022

Zoom access link: <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/81266014597>

14:00 CEST to 16:00 CEST

Part 1: Proposal by the African Group for a work programme on exceptions and limitations

14:00 - 14:15: Presentation on the African Group proposal for a work program on exceptions and limitations, Mohamed Bakir, Permanent Mission of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria to the United Nations Office at Geneva and other international organizations in Switzerland

14:15 - 14:30: Open discussion between participants

Part 2: Appraising proposals for a WIPO broadcasting treaty in 2022 and its implications on access to culture and knowledge

14:30 - 15:00: The Chair's new text: What is protected, what rights are granted, and for how long, and will that change the distribution of licensing revenues and the ability to clear rights?

James Love, Knowledge Ecology International (KEI)
Erry Prasetyo, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Indonesia

15:00 - 15:30 The Treaty: What are its implications on the right to education (research, preserve, train and teach)?

Teresa Hackett, Electronic Information for Libraries (eIFL)
Teresa Nobre, Communia
Luis Villarroel, Innovarte

15:30 - 16:00: Question and Answer session