

EIFL update

2013 EIFL Annual Report

The 2013 edition of our Annual Report is now online. The report covers the work of our five main programmes over the past year, detailing our achievements and financial figures.

EIFL welcomes Angola

EIFL is delighted to welcome Angola as our newest partner country. EIFL will be partnering with Angola's Network of Media Libraries (ReMA), a network of six public media libraries in Angola to work on the creation of a national consortium, something that is already underway.

EIFL-OA update

Training content needed on OA, open data and open science

FOSTER is calling for training content (from briefing papers to presentations, videos, etc.) in any language on open access, open data and open science. The aim is to showcase engaging and instructive training materials and reach out to diverse disciplinary communities and countries in the European Research Area. Learn how you can get involved.

EIFL joins the Open Access Button Steering Committee

Iryna Kuchma, EIFL-OA Programme Manager, has joined the Open Access Button Steering Committee. The Open Access Button is a browser bookmarklet that allows people to report when they hit a paywall and cannot access a research article. Learn more.

EIFL joins associations in support of immediate open access

EIFL has joined other major international associations such as COAR, LIBER, National Science Library, Chinese Academy of Sciences, OpenAIRE and SPARC to underscore our support for immediate Open Access to research articles. Read the full announcement and see how your organisation can lend its support.

Research funders in China issue open access policies

The Chinese Academy of Sciences (CAS) and the National Natural Science Foundation of China (NSFC) have both issued new open access policies which will contribute to making research more available. Learn more.
